

2nd Call for Papers

Learning Information Literacy across the Globe 2019

<https://informationliteracy.eu/conference/>

The international Conference on Learning Information Literacy across the Globe will be held on the 10th of May 2019 at Frankfurt Main, Germany. The Conference is a final part of the Erasmus+ Project Information Literacy Online, a European project to improve students' competencies.

In November 2016 the EU project ILO was started with the aim to develop, evaluate and disseminate a multilingual open access online course (MOOC) designed to improve students' abilities to cope with the claims of present-day information society. In May 2019, the seven partner institutions will be able to present a MOOC on Information Literacy, covering six language and cultural areas. An integrated assessment component will enhance the autonomous learning progress.

The Conference will be a forum for the exchange of research and experience associated with Information Literacy (IL) Learning. Besides three keynotes and a panel, several tracks of paper sessions are planned. Submissions to the following topics of interest are invited:

- IL as a learning process, including assessment
- Digital learning resources for IL (e.g. MOOCs, Learning-scenarios, OERs)
- Comparative studies of courses and curricula with an IL lens
- Cultural diversity of IL
- IL in connection with other literacy concepts
- Many disciplines can contribute: Library and Information Science, different Learning Sciences, or Research in Cultural Diversity.

The Proceedings of the conference will be published digitally by the 10th of June.

Submission Guidelines

The conference will have three formats: Long-papers, Short-papers, Posters. The Long-paper track provides the opportunity to present state of the art research. The Short-paper and Poster tracks call for original ideas, application areas and schemes. The inclusion of results is encouraged but not required.

Submitted abstracts should not exceed 400 (Long-papers) resp. 200 (Short-papers and posters) words.

Long-paper submissions should be 10 pages in length plus additional pages for references.

Short-paper submissions should be 2 pages in length plus additional pages for references. Please use the LNCS conference proceedings guidelines to format the submissions.

Programme Committee

The reviewing process is organized by the scientific chair of the conference: Marc Rittberger.

The board of reviewers includes international experts from the fields of information-science, media-pedagogy, psychologists, media-scientists, open-educational-resources, scientific libraries and intercultural studies.
